Subject: Global Award for Sustainable Architecture 2014 - Schedule and invitation
CHRISTOPHER AND MAGGIE MOORE ALEXANDER

Dear Christopher,
Dear Maggie,

I am very glad to invite you for the Symposium 2014 of the Global Award, here in Paris.
Margaux Minier, chief of project in the Cité, will contact you next week to organize your personal schedule and the cover of your travel expenses.

The program 2014 is more dense than usual. The Cité de l'Architecture, cultural partner of LOCUS for the Global Award, will open a manifesto-exhibition, "Re-enchant the World", conceived with the 35 architects already awarded of the Global Award- and me as Curator!

This exhibition will have international touring until 2016. As it is an on-going collective process, I invite you to join the team soon! We'll be then able to expose your projects and proposals in May. If you accept, we'll have to work on it in March.

So, I give you by this mail the provisional program:
