Agenda for Discussion

(1) Campus Planning Committee's Role; Formal Responsibility, Powers, Connection to Other Committees

The critical question is when does CPC get bypassed by administration.

(2) Relationships Among Campus Architect, Planner, Physical Plant. Who Reports to Whom. Definition of Responsibilities.

(3) Connection of Process to Academic Affairs. How Can We Make Sure That Planning is Seen More As a Problem of Academic Affairs and Not Just Administration.

(4) To Whom Are the Campus Architect, Planner and Physical Plant Responsible.

(5) What Are the Possible Sources of Funding. Who Controls Disbursements. When Can They be Mixed. Does Financial Independence Mean Planning Independence.

(6) How Can We Speed Up Action By Reducing the Time Span on Projects. Can We Get Construction in Less Than Three Years. Maybe a Budget for Each Department?

(7) How Does a Project Get On the Construction List in a Legitimate Way. Should There be a New Entity Called the Funding List for the Campus.

(8) Who Sets Priorities on the Funding List, and According to What Criteria. How Can the Campus Planning Committee be Involved in This.

(9) Exactly Which Projects Go Through the Campus Planning Committee Process. According to Type, Amount of Money, etc. Must be Feasible in Terms of Work Load.

(10) What Happens When This Process Goes to Hunderup, State Board, Legislature for Funding. Possible Changes in the Concepts of Priorities and Omnibus Projects.

(11) How Can the Faculty Get Involved More Easily.

(12) Who Does the Diagnosis. More Important Who Adopts It and The Policies Which Follow From It. And How Can We Be Sure That Projects Fall in Line With it.

(13) How Does One Make a Complaint and To Whom.

(14) User Committees. How Appointed and Made Legitimate.

(15) Who Selects Professional Consultants and According to What Criteria.

(16) Can the Existing Planning Staff Handle the Process. If Not More Salaries Needed.

(17) How to Increase Staff Involvement.

(18) Relations With the City. How Do They Dovetail Into the Process.