

ORDER

What is order

Order not just repetition etc (definition of order)

Order is not rules

Order is not result of function

Order is coherence

Try to produce order of a  beautiful building.

The Moroccan courtyard

Complex order of Chartres

Great examples

Pattern language alone is not enough.

NOT SEPARATENESS

Infinite repeat and central design

Images of ~~dark~~ emptiness

Want to be ~~separated~~ not separate

The yellow tower(2)

The process of production and not separatenss

Melting

Ordinary... breakfast...

Types of construction

The personal character of a production process

The feelings of production

Planning and zoning law

Ordinary function: seeing ^{each function} a symmetry, as a function

~~Construction~~ Contrived and natural

How can one see, at once, without knowing what it is.

Because it lies absolutely in the structure of space

On Sacredness

Everything is aligned and it is

Having local symmetries

Symmetric meaning, arbitrariness

Explanation of symmetry.

Own separate from the world

Personal nature of not separateness

Symmetry and physics

Big building plan

Importance of generic structure.

Texture and material (only not important)

* Table leg design (relates to structure / colors),

It is always unique. (Uniqueness).

2. The properties which create ~~connectedness~~ ^{wholeness}.
3. The mirror of the self.
4. The inner structure of the thing.
5. ~~The transformation~~ Healing transformations.
6. Inner light
7. Ideas of order, and ~~wholeness~~ ^{and} ~~simplicity~~ ^{simplicity}.

1. Laying out a building.
2. Functional prpties of nature.
3. Pattern language.
4. Subsymmetries.
5. Great buildings which achieve not separateness.
6. Not separatness always achieved as part of religious effort.
7. Great art always has this structure.

~~Not~~ On being alone

Great ~~art~~ art is mirror of self

Coherence is essentially pinned down by this criterion.

Nature also is mirror of the self

It is unbounded, whole, connected... not separate operation depends of connectedness

Functional connectedness ?
